A thriving life is built on good health, a quality education, nutritious food, clean water and adequate sanitation. Over the last 10 years Cartier Philanthropy’s partners have made remarkable progress to improve access to these fundamental human rights.

ACCESS TO HEALTHCARE

- 33%
  - decrease in infant mortality in areas of Ifanadiana district where Pivot worked from 2014–2021, compared to 48% increase in the rest of the district

- 38%
  - reduction in student morbidity in Lusaka schools when teachers are trained as school health workers by Healthy Learners

- 30%
  - decrease in under-five mortality rate with Integrate Health’s community-led model over a five-year period in the Kozah district

- 14%
  - national decrease
A thriving life is built on good health, a quality education, nutritious food, clean water and adequate sanitation. Over the last 10 years Cartier Philanthropy’s partners have made remarkable progress to improve access to these fundamental human rights.

ACCESS TO EDUCATION

- 75% of students in The Luminos Fund’s “second chance” programme are still attending school after 6 years.
- 19% increase in emotional resilience for adolescents enrolled in CorStone’s resilience training in Rwanda.
- 66% increase in literacy for children using Imagine Worldwide’s tech-enabled learning approach, demonstrated in Malawi and now undergoing testing in Bangladesh.
A thriving life is built on good health, a quality education, nutritious food, clean water and adequate sanitation. Over the last 10 years Cartier Philanthropy’s partners have made remarkable progress to improve access to these fundamental human rights.

ACCESS TO WATER, SANITATION AND NUTRITION

- CAMBODIA
  - +12,000
    - Haitians use SOIL’s container-based toilets and waste collection service
  - 1 in 4
    - rural households in Cambodia - 850,000 people - drink clean water every day through 1001fontaines’ water kiosks

- GUATEMALA
  - 12,600
    - farmers planted Semilla Nueva’s biofortified seeds in 2021, providing more nutritious corn to
  - 300,000 people

- HAITI
  - 300,000 people

Cartier Philanthropy